

This rule will have severe adverse affects on the legitimate conduct of business in this country. Business to business transactions should be exempt.